

Biography

I grew up in a rough neighborhood in the Detroit area, so fighting was pretty much a way of life for me starting around 6 years old.

I joined the Air Force right out of high school and with my martial arts background it was a perfect match for the Security Police Division.

After I left the military I trained people in law enforcement and private security before I started working in the film industry.

I'm a huge comic fan – I think there's Batman and then all the other heroes.

People ask me about success or being successful. I personally feel if you are able to do what you enjoy – THAT is success.

I am proficient in the following Disciplines and Weapons.
